

OPEN GOVERNMENT PARTNERSHIP

National Action Plan - II

2016-18

MONGOLIA

Working Group to develop the draft National Action Plan for Open Government Partnership Mongolia for 2016-18

June 07, 2016

1. INTRODUCTION

Under their good governance platform, the Government of Mongolia joined the Open Government Partnership (OGP), which is a multilateral and voluntary initiative aimed at combatting corruption by increasing transparency and participation within the public service. As a member of the OGP, the Government of Mongolia is working towards their commitment of supporting an open and transparent public service by ensuring citizen participation, innovation and the creation of safe and healthy communities.

Stable governance is vital to the implementation and execution of Mongolia's 2030 Sustainable Development Vision. In achieving this, a partnership between citizens, civil society, the private sector, media and international organizations is needed. While the adherence to principles of transparency, citizen empowerment, anti-corruption and using technology to improve governance are of high importance.

The II OGP National Action Plan (NAP) for Mongolia builds on the lessons learned from the I OGP NAP (2014-16) considering the objectives defined by the Mongolian Sustainable Development Vision 2030 through extensive public consultation engaging the civil society representatives with the leadership of the Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia, under the guidance of the OGP Mongolia National Council, and with the technical and financial support of The Asian Foundation and The World Bank.

2. MONGOLIA'S EFFORTS TOWARDS OPEN GOVERNMENT

The Mongolian Government recently defined their sustainable development policies and priority goals until 2030; this coincided with the development of the II NAP for Mongolia for 2016-18. By 2030 Mongolia strives to become a leading upper middle-income country with a growing multi-sector economy, where the majority of the population identify as either middle or upper class while living in an ecologically preserved and completely stable democratic society.

To sustainably grow the economy Mongolia will prioritize four main areas. Firstly, it will intensify agriculture, create and export Mongolian organic brands, promote final value-added production, improve the competitiveness of the mining sector, attract more tourists, cover the domestic energy consumption, and export energy by building more energy sources. Secondly, the government of Mongolia will improve the quality of and access to healthcare, public health education, from a national system of lifetime education, eradicate all forms of poverty, reduce the unemployment rate, and bring more people out of poverty and into the middle class. Thirdly, Mongolia will protect water reserves and prevent shortages, enhance access to hygiene facilities, build the nation's capacity to adapt to climate change, reduce carbon dioxide emission, strengthen a system of preventing natural calamities, enhance the sophistication of green urban planning initiatives, and improve waste management. Finally, Mongolia will institute sustainable development policies at the local level, while establishing accountability monitoring systems for policy implementation, enhancing administrative leadership in the public service, and formulating a robust system of institutional architecture that allows for a close partnership between the public and private sector.

Working within the framework of reforms to strengthen governance and accountability mechanisms, Mongolia joined the United Nations Convention against Corruption in 2005 and has developed several pieces of draft legislation on fighting corruption. In 2007 Mongolia established the Independent Authority Against Corruption, which serves as an independent mechanism for the promotion of good governance. Mongolia has made significant efforts towards good governance, passing numerous pieces of legislation such as the Law on Information Transparency and Right to Information (2011), the Law on Preventing Conflict of Interest in Public Service (2012), the Integrated Budget Law (2011), the Law on Glass Account (2014), the Law on the Amendment to the Law on Petroleum (2014), the General Administrative Law (2015), the Law on Public Hearing (2015), and the Law on Debt Management (2015). Mongolia has also joined the International Budget Partnership (2005), the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (2006) and the Open Government Partnership (2013) while establishing a chapter of the Global Organisation of Parliamentarians Against Corruption (2012). The OGP will serve as an important instrument in implementing these efforts more effectively and transparently while sharing Mongolian best practices globally.

In its second NAP, Mongolia is making 13 commitments within the framework of four challenges. The first two commitments, "Mobile Application for Government 11:11 Center to receive citizens' feedbacks and requests" and "Improving Glass Account System" are ongoing commitments of the first NAP Mongolia plans to build upon. The II NAP is also specific by outlining commitments such as "Developing a legal environment that ensures transparency in the funding of political parties", "transparency on information on beneficial ownership on mining sector" which meets OGP's core principles.

The previous NAP for the OGP outlined 35 commitments under three challenges. During the implementation of the NAP in 2015, the Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia developed a "Mid-Term Self-Assessment Report" and independent researchers issued the Independent Reporting Mechanism (IRM) report. These documents were created in accordance with international OGP Principles and requirements. Two commitments out of 35 from the first NAP for the OGP, received a "STAR" rating and were shared as a best practice at the international level. The IRM report also concluded that the daily operations of the National Council of Mongolia for the OGP and the partnership between government and civil society organizations were insufficient during the implementation phase of the I OGP NAP for Mongolia.

3. NATIONAL ACTION PLAN DEVELOPING PROCESS

After discussing the findings of the Self-Assessment Report, the IRM Report for the NAP 2014-16, and considering the feedback and recommendations from the public consultation, a Working Group was established with the task to draft the NAP for 2016-18 of OGP Mongolia. In all phases of the development of the NAP draft stakeholders and partners participated.

Based on the recommendations and feedback provided in the second Public Consultation, the ideas of the challenges, priorities, and commitments for the NAP 2016-18 were identified, consulted and prioritized. The consultation process involved over 80 representatives from government, civil society, the private sector and media.

- 3.1. Availability of timeline. Details and date of the public consultation and its draft of the proposed commitments were available before the consultation and were made public on the government website /www.cabinet.gov.mn/ in addition to newspapers such as the "Daily Newspaper" and the "National Post," Mongolia's OGP webpage /www.zasag.mn/tunshlel/ and the "OGP Mongolia" Facebook group, the news was also distributed via emails to CSOs, and announced on the Mongolian National Broadcaster. The announcement was also published on two news websites <http://www.news.mn/r/302589>; <http://www.today.mn/p/18572>; http://mglradio.com/home/index.php?mid=fastnews&page=1&document_srl=141123.

- 3.2. Adequate notice: The announcement for public consultation on the draft version of the II NAP was made public eight days before consultation via the multiple media channels mentioned above. An electronic version of the draft NAP was uploaded and disseminated to the news websites mentioned above with the announcement. The Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia also sent out an official letter and draft version of the II NAP to governors of Aimags¹ requesting them to organize a consultation on the draft at the local level and provide feedback and recommendations.
- 3.3. Awareness raising. Announcements of the public consultation included information about Mongolian OGP and were regularly informed to enhance public participation. Also, interested members of the public were able to access more information by joining the "OGP Mongolia" a public Facebook group and by following the Twitter account "@OGP_Mongolia." Regular news and reminders were also posted to the following websites: <http://www.zasag.mn/tunshlel/>; <http://www.opengovpartnership.org>; and <http://www.opghub.org/profile> which informed the public of access to more information.
- 3.4. Multiple channels. To provide multiple opportunities for the public to participate in the consultation, several meetings were organized. Additionally, the opportunity to provide comments and feedback via online sources such as email were open to the public. For instance, some civil society organizations and Aimags sent their feedback via letters and emails.
- 3.5. The breadth of consultation. To obtain feedback and recommendations from a broad range of stakeholders on the NAP draft, a public consultation involving over 100 participants from government, civil society, and international organizations and the media sector took place. The consultation engaged over 80 representatives ensuring equal participation from each sector.
- 3.6. Documentation and feedback. Five sub- sessions were organized during the public consultation which aligned with the five challenges identified by the OGP. Members of the Working Group facilitated sub-sessions and consolidated recommendations and feedback from the meetings. Following the development of an initial draft, the document was sent to the Working Group, which was composed of representatives from both government and civil society organizations. In addition to this, the draft was uploaded on the public "OGP Mongolia" Facebook group. Documentation in the form of memos was also kept at each meeting, discussions and consultation session.

- 3.7. Consultation during implementation. The Working Group for developing the draft version of the II OGP NAP for Mongolia for 2016-18 was established by order #65 of the Chief of the Cabinet Secretariat of Government of Mongolia on April 20, 2016. The Cabinet Secretariat now plans to establish a new working group with broader participation and run it as a consultative forum where regular meetings and consultations are organized to facilitate multi-stakeholder implementation and monitoring of the II NAP.

4. PUBLIC CONSULTATION

The Public Consultation on the draft Plan took place on May 19, 2016, with over 80 representatives from government, the private sector, civil society, international organizations, and media.

Mr. G.Ganbold, Deputy Chief of the Cabinet Secretariat of Government of Mongolia and Deputy Chief of the OGP Mongolia National Council, opened the consultation and presented an introduction on the "OGP and Mongolia".

Among others, the representatives of important private and public sector organizations, including B.Lkhagvajav, President of the Mongolian National Chamber of Commerce and Industry, B.Galaarid, President of the Association of Mongolian Journalists, Z.Batbold, an independent expert who conducted an assessment for NAP for 2014-2016, G.Undral, representative of civil society organizations, D.Ganbayar, a member of the Financial Regulatory Commission and head of the National Council for Corporate Governance participated and shared valuable feedback and recommendations on behalf of their sectors.

The consultation was organized in five sector-specific groups where participants participated according to their respective experiences. In the meeting, participants were engaged in group activities for the purpose of generating feedback and recommendations on the commitments of the NAP for the OGP for 2016-2018. Total of 30 proposed commitments were consolidated within the frame of five OGP challenges. Some of the proposals were recommended in the Mid-Term Self-Assessment Report and the IRM Report of NAP 2014-2016. Other proposals were submitted from ministries and Aimags, and representatives of civil society organizations during the February 2016 National Council Meeting and broader consultation. There were some commitment proposals from the World Bank. As a result of the public consultation total of 25 commitments were proposed for the draft NAP.

5. NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR THE OPEN GOVERNMENT PARTNERSHIP

The National Council (NC) for the Mongolian OGP was established by Directive #61 of the Prime Minister of Mongolia on May 16, 2014, for the purpose of implementing the policies and plans of the OGP and supervising and coordinating the works of the Secretariat of the OGP of Mongolia. The composition of the National Council was changed by Directive #207 of the Prime Minister of Mongolia on October 2015.

Currently, the Head of the NC is the chief of the Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia; the Deputy's Head is the Deputy Chief of the Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia. The NC members consist of State Secretaries of the Ministry of Finance, the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in addition to the President of the Mongolian National Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the President of the Association of Mongolian Journalists, the Executive Director of the Research Centre for Economic Policy and Competitiveness and the Executive Director of the Open Society Forum. The Head of Monitoring, Inspection, Evaluation and Internal Audit from the Department of the Cabinet Secretariat is the Secretary of the National Council.

At its first meeting, the NC approved the NAP for 2014-16 and submitted it to the OGP. The second meeting was held on February 2016 with new membership and organized broader consultation and evaluation of the NAP, Self-Assessment report, IRM report and the II NAP draft was discussed with CSO representatives. The OGP's Civil Society Coordinator for the Asia and Pacific region, Mrs. Shreya Basu, of the OGP and, Government Programme Officer Mr. Jack Mahoney participated in the meeting and co-facilitated consultations.

Based on the proposal from the meetings, a Working Group was established to develop the NAP draft for 2016-18. After the second Public Consultation on May 19, the working group finalized the NAP draft. The Draft was submitted to the National Council on May 30 for review before it was the topic of discussion at a Cabinet meeting, and the final draft was presented at the Cabinet meeting on May 31, 2016. Mr. S.Bayartsog, Head of the OGP National Council, Minister, and Chief of Cabinet Secretariat of the Government of Mongolia presented the draft NAP OGP Mongolia 2016-18 to the Cabinet meeting.

By the Cabinet meeting, the NAP draft was principally endorsed, and feedback from cabinet members was reflected in the draft. After receiving the feedback from the Cabinet members, a total of 12 commitments were consolidated into the NAP draft. The NAP draft was discussed at the National Council meeting on June 7, 2016, and was approved with a total of 13 commitments by resolution #2 of the OGP National Council of Mongolia.

The Cabinet Secretariat plans to establish a new broadly composed working group and run it as a forum to facilitate regular meetings and multi-stakeholder consultation. The working group will also monitor and ensure effective implementation of the II NAP OGP Mongolia.

6. COMMITMENT AND TARGET ACTIVITIES OF OGP MONGOLIA

The following 13 commitments in the II NAP OGP Mongolia were submitted within the framework of four challenges out of the five challenges² to be tackled by the OGP. Each commitment was detailed in commitment templates stating the implementation milestones, responsible persons, and main objectives as illustrated below.

OGP CHALLENGE: IMPROVING PUBLIC SERVICES

² The International OGP identified challenges faced by governments around the world in 5 specific themes: Improvement of Government Services, Improve Integrity in Government Operations, Effective Management of Government Resources, Ensuring Safe environment to Life, Improving Corporate Governance and Feedback mechanism.

Status quo or problem addressed by the commitment		Funding of political parties is a contentious issue not only in Mongolia but also in other countries as well. According to survey data and study reports, political parties have the highest risk of exposure to corruption. There are still cases of violations related to election funding; this shows that the system is not comprehensive enough to handle these issues. Various international studies reveal that corruption in political parties is the base of defects in the political system, and has a negative effect on the development of parties and creates a foundation for future corruption. Therefore, there is an immediate need to address the issues of funding to political parties and make these channels more open, transparent, monitored and accountable. Amend the law on political parties of Mongolia and reflect the issue of funding transparency of political parties in the new amendment to the law.
Main Objective		Amend the law on political parties of Mongolia to reflect the issue of funding transparency of political parties in the new amendment to the law.

Status quo or problem addressed by the commitment	The amendment of Law on VAT by the Parliament of July 09, 2015, established a legal environment for correctly collecting VAT. It created an opportunity for the customers to register their receipts onto the online receipt registration system and get back a certain portion of their tax payment in the form of incentives and lottery prizes. GTA has started to implement the "EBARIMT" system, which meets international standards, from January 01, 2016 and as of now, the amount of VAT income increased 2.2 times a year on year for the first two months of implementation. Since January 01, 2016 a total of 29,880 entities and 37,045 cash registers were connected to the system. Since 1995, only 12,000 POS machines were connected to a system to register non-cash transactions in Mongolia. The connection of 37,045 Cash Register POS machines into the system in less than a three month period is an impressive achievement. With the conversion from paper receipts to online receipts, it became easier for entities to report to the tax system and created an opportunity to reduce stress related to tax reporting. It also stopped the allocation of about 300 million MNT for paper receipts in the government budget. As of May 2016, traffic for the Ebarimt.mn website reached 4.5 million, and there is now a total of 415 493 people registering their receipts through the website. As a result, the website became the most popular website in Mongolia after Facebook and YouTube according to. https://www.similarweb.com/country/mongolia
Main Objective	Provide accessible information to entities and the public about VAT online receipt registration
Brief Description of commitment (140 character limit)	Continue registering all sales centers, service providers, and markets into the online receipt registration system and provide systematic information to public entities.

Status quo or problem addressed by the commitment		Activities aimed at ensuring budget and financial transparency have had an important impact on the implementation of the Law on Glass Account (2014), and all government organizations are now beginning to make their budget spending more transparent to the public. Despite this achievement, there is public suspicion regarding government agencies hiding their budget spending by dividing their expenses over 5 million on the actual budget spending. Because of this, it is necessary to reduce the transaction transparency threshold to MNT 1 million for government organizations.
Main Objective		Increase transparency of the budget and financial activities
Brief Description of commitment (140 character limit)		Improve and refine indicators for measuring budget and financial information transparency of government organizations. Status quo or problem addressed by the commitment		Mongolia has made significant achievements on regard to making the government/budget procurement process transparent to the public; this comes as a result of actions and initiatives spearheaded by the Ministry of Finance and Government Procurement Agency (GPA).

NATIONAL ACTION PLAN-II 2016-2018 MONGOLIA

	Progressive legal changes were made into the Law on Purchasing and Procuring Goods and Services with the State and Local Resources and Budget in 2011 and 2014. Started using an online platform to make procurement processes transparent to the public. GPA is currently working on to reform the online system in order to make the procurement process fully open and transparent, and also to increase accessibilities for citizens to get information and to encourage citizens' constructive engagement and participation. The Ministry of Finance and GPA requested the World Bank to support to align their initiative on the procurement with the Open Contracting Data Standard, an international initiative for open government etc. Therefore the parties do cooperate on this matter.

Status quo or problem addressed by the commitment	Transparency of the state-owned enterprises is regulated by the Law on Company and the Law on Stock Market. However, to ensure good corporate governance and transparency for state-owned enterprises, it is necessary that changes be made into the Law on Public and Local Ownership. Otherwise, issues surrounding SOE will remain prevalent in Mongolia. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Within the framework of establishing a reporting mechanism for the general public about corporate governance under objective 2 and 3 of the National Programme for Developing Corporate Governance, Mongolia produced two national reports on corporate governance. Also, the government made a significant effort to be transparent through its national web portal. - Although the central authority implementing the representation of government ownership is a member of the national council, it was not able to pay significant importance to corporate governance issues due to lack of capacity and its conflict of interest. - Newly adopted laws on accounting reflected the introduction of international standards in financial reporting. The financial reporting mechanism is on par with international standards, which is important in drawing investors to Mongolia. - The biggest challenge regarding corporate governance is the conflict of interest in the extractive mining agreements. Although Mongolia established a legal environment to ensure transparency of shareholders by the Board of Directors, the transparency requirement has not been fully met. -The media was not able to work actively on corporate governance and transparency issues as a result of lack of professional capacity on corporate transparency and a proper mechanism for ensuring transparency in company information. - Information about rehabilitation efforts by the mining companies is not transparent, and only a few companies develop social responsibility reports on a voluntary basis. Thus, many companies do not pay significant attention to rehabilitation processes, which require sufficient funds. -Due to a lack of consolidated understanding of government ownership by ministries, there is a visible conflict of interest in the process. Therefore, a system to appoint independent members to the board of directors as well as executive management of stated-owned enterprises, based on the fair selection process, is

	necessary. -The actual owner of the company is not clear unless it is specified in the income statement. Therefore, it is difficult to identify whether there is a conflict of interest. Thus, it is necessary to establish a database of confirmed candidates for the Board of Directors and share the information with relevant organizations. Information about individuals with training certification on corporate governance is already available on the Corporate Governance National Portal. It is necessary to integrate the information into the IAAC information database to improve the monitoring mechanism. The National Council is the representative of the private and public sector and can work with government organizations to develop a list of potential candidates for independent members of the board of directors by clause 79.2 of Company Law.
Main Objective	Improve transparency and reporting mechanisms of state-owned enterprises to ensure their independence.
Brief Description of commitment (140 character limit)	Ensure annual financial and operational reporting by companies, develop a comprehensive database to ensure transparency for social responsibility, create a culture in the company to report and disseminate information about the company and use governance as a promotion, make the selection process of independent members of Board of Directors independent from political involvement, make the information of candidates transparent to the public and enable Board of Directors and Executive Directors to make independent decisions and create a mechanism to take accountability for their decisions and provide performance-based incentives.
