In June 2009, the Parliament enacted the Law on Information Transparency and Right to Information Access, which has four major components: responsibilities of public sectors institutions, the human resources, the budgetary financing, and the public procurement. The Independent Authority Against Corruption and non-governmental organizations are to monitor the implementation of this Law. In July 2014, the Parliament amended this law. Specifically, Article

	2, Clause 9 (on Budgetary transparency) and Clause 10 (Transparency of public procurement of goods, works and services) were removed to be in line with the newly approved The Glass (Transparent) Account Law. The Law regulates mechanisms to provide information to citizens about the policies and activities of the Ministry of Justice and Interior, prompt connection with the staff responsible, approval of time, subject, and schedule according to the contracts with press and broadcasters for making public announcement, publicly inform any activity and/or event of the Ministry, and to promote Ministry's reform processes developed within legal framework to be submitted to the Parliament and draft legislation in a specific program. In order to ensure transparent information, the Government agencies have regularly updated their web pages and linked to major social networks. The Information transparency strategies of Ministry's agencies and organizations are developed and approved. In order to implement these, the Ministry of Justice and Interior has developed the Communication Strategy on Media and Public Relations.

Descriptions of the results Include specific activities within the reporting period (first or second year of the action plan) and, wherever possible, please indicate whether there has been evidence of members of the public using the or whether the commitment has had an effect.	The Government (Cabinet) Resolution No. 322 on General Regulations for monitoring and evaluation of public administrative authorities' performance and policy planning documents was issued on 9th September 2009. This Cabinet Resolution obliges that performance of all government bodies needs to be evaluated through independent consumer satisfaction surveys. Due to lack of the standardized client feedback criteria, the reports varied on quality and consistency. Thus, the Cabinet Secretariat is developing a general standard for client satisfaction assessment. The Government (Cabinet) Resolution No. 88 was issued in 2014 which was aligned with the above Resolution No. 322. It established social development and economic indicators for operational performance of the Local Governor's Office of the capital city and the provinces as well as for all government bodies and ministries. These 42 indicators are to measure governance, economic and social development. Most of these indicators intended to measure citizen's involvement such as civic participation rate of budgetary decision making process, school attendance rate, and resolution rate of complaints raised from citizens.

	Additionally, the IAAC biannually conducts public sector institutions' integrity assessment based on research of satisfaction level of citizens and private sector organizations towards the government services. The evaluation report is published and made available to public. Also, the results of this assessment are being used for a measure to assess the public sector organizations' performance.

Descriptions of the results  Include specific activities within the reporting period (first or second year of the action plan) and, wherever possible, please indicate whether there has been evidence of members of the public using the or whether the commitment has had an effect.	In order to ensure the contract transparency, the Mongolia EITI National Council established three technical sub-group in 2015, which was chaired by the Director of Mining policy department of the Ministry of Mining and Heavy Industries. This group conducted a rese on legislation related to contract disclosure, organized meetings with contracting parties and downloaded contracts and created database. The group is now working to finalize adaption of the Contract Transparency web site. This online database is accessible at www.iltodgeree.mn and will contain and disclose public all Investment agreements, Production sharing agreements, Local cooperation agreements, Agreements on use of water and land. The contracts in the database are in metadata, PDF version of contracts, converted PDF text, and explanation annotation of relevant clauses and articles. Users are able to search, compare and download documents from database. In accordance with the Law on Minerals, and the investment (and taxation) stability and mining agreements are to be made public. Thus, agreements with Boroo Gold LLC on Boroo gold mine, “Tsairt Mineral” LLC on “Tumurt Ovoo” zinc mine, Chinhua-Mak-Nariin suhait LLC on “Nariin suhait” coal mine and the Investment agreement with the Oyu tolgoi LLC on “Oyu tolgoi” mine are now public. The following amendment was made to Article 11 of the Law on Minerals: The government office shall organize issuing of, revocation, transfer and depositing of exploration and mining licenses and return or transfer activities of mine site under public scrutiny. License holders shall make an agreement with local government offices in regard to protecting environment, mining and industrial infrastructure development and increasing workplaces. The Government (Cabinet) meeting approved standard template for this agreement by its Resolution # 179 of 2016. Also, the sub-working group of Mongolia EITI National Council on Contract Transparency has created database of contracts made with local authorities. The database collected contract information from 15 regional governments and capital city, including

	information of 59 contracts, of which 25 are copies of contracts. Following the revised Law on Petroleum, the principles of production sharing agreement are being implemented. The Government (Cabinet ) approved standard template of production sharing agreement by its Resolution # 104 in 2015 and published on www.legalinfo.mn accessible to citizens. A list of companies that have production sharing agreement is placed on websites of the Ministry of Mining and Heave Industries, the Mineral Resources and Petroleum Authority (MRPA). Additionally, the Government (Cabinet) approved standard template for agreements on environmental protection and voluntary support to local development by its resolution 430 of 2015. Currently, there are 25 production sharing agreements have been made. The sub working group of Mongolia EITI National Council on Contract Transparency organized meeting with companies which have concluded Production sharing agreement and agreed to disclose the whole agreement except Annex 'B', which is about geology and exploration finings. The MRPA organizes information provision activities every year in the aimags /provinces these agreements relate to. An advantage of the revision of Petroleum law in relation to investment decision making is that it sets different timing for each organization. Also, it reduced the processes for making production sharing agreement.
